

LEADERSHIP BENCHMARKS

Samuel R. Chand

A leader is a servant who takes the initiative to serve and serve well. We all have different roles, but roles have nothing to do with importance.

1. A leader has a passion to keep L _____ and improving. They are dissatisfied with the status quo and have a passion to improve and grow. Leaders always raise the bar of excellence otherwise they will never reach potential.
2. A leader is someone who can spot potential in O _____. Believe the best of people.
3. A leader is someone who can D _____ or envision what can be accomplished.
4. A leader is not easily D _____.
5. A leader has the ability to A _____ – they don't just sit there.
6. A leader takes R _____.
7. A leader has the ability to bond with people and mobilize them toward a C _____ purpose.
8. A leader stewards their A _____ well – to build up and not tear down.
9. A leader is resilient and has an ability to B _____ back from defeat and setbacks.
10. A leader is compelled by a P _____ – “...whatever it takes...” because the W _____ behind it is bigger than the W _____ I have to deal with.

Dr. Samuel R. Chand, 950 Eagles Landing Parkway, Suite 295, Stockbridge, GA 30281 770-898-6464—www.samchand.com